ABOUT THE ARTIST

Yingqi Wang

Pianist and Educator

Yingqi Wang is a Boston-area pianist and educator whose performances bring Western classical repertoire into dialogue with Chinese musical traditions. As a soloist and collaborative pianist, she has performed across the United States, in Europe, and in China. Her performances have taken her to venues including Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall and The DiMenna Center for Classical Music in New York, Westbrook Recital Hall in Lincoln, Nebraska, and Piano Craft Gallery in Boston. Her programs span solo recitals, chamber music, and lecture-recitals, including East Meets West: Fusion in Jianzhong Wang's Piano Works. Through recitals and lecture-recitals combining live performance with accessible commentary, she introduces audiences to classical repertoire and its musical and cultural contexts. This work seeks to broaden access to classical music and deepen audiences' musical understanding. Her doctoral research explores the integration of Western compositional techniques and traditional Chinese folk music in the piano works of Jianzhong Wang, informing her approach to cross-cultural programming and performance. She holds a Master of Music in Piano Performance from Syracuse University and a Doctor of Musical Arts in Piano Performance from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.
